Schedule 2.1(c)

Software

Codebases enabling the creativebug proprietary content management system, website, mobile applications, customer relationship management system, and enterprise onboarding system. The software production environments are hosted on AWS. The codebases are maintained in GitHub in four central code repositories categorized by the following:

- Main website application
- iOS and Android React applications
- Release scripts for rolling forward and backward production releases
- Development environment Docker

The software may require various third-party integrations, including an existing integration with JW Player video streaming software solutions to stream video content maintained in Debtors' proprietary content management system to end subscribers. The software includes source code and object code, and technical documentation related to thereto.

Schedule 2.1(d)

Content Library

A playable digital recording content library comprised of approximately 1,700 video classes directed at the instruction of arts and crafts skills, as segmented into the following categories:

- Yarn Crafts
- Sewing
- Quilting
- Needlework
- Art + Design
- Paper
- Kids + Teen
- Holiday + Party
- Jewelry
- Food + Home

The Content Library also includes approximately 360 downloadable and printable digital design patterns directed at arts and crafts designs including the following categories:

- Makeables
- Coloring Pages
- Sewing
- Knitting
- Crochet
- Quilting
- SVGs
- Recipes

Schedule 2.1(e)

Customer Data

Customer subscription data including approximately 820,00 opt-in email addresses, including the following:

- Approximately 25,000 paying consumer subscribers
- Approximately 1,200 active libraries under 843 paying accounts, comprising approximately 223,000 library patrons and admins
- Marketable nonmembers

The customer subscription data includes:

- Consumer and library member status
- Classes viewed
- Patterns downloaded
- Classes saved to library/purchased a la carte
- Payment receipts
- Images uploaded to class galleries
- Comments
- Reviews

Customer data is maintained in a proprietary customer relationship management system developed by the Debtors.
